AspireRevo

The AspireRevo is a revolution in computer size, shape, design and affordability. This is an ultra-slim and compact PC that can either stand alone or snap to your monitor, streamlining your personal space while giving you the home infotainment center you always wanted!

Sleek any-room PC

Whether tucked away in a corner of your desk or nicely concealed on the back of your monitor, the AspireRevo makes the perfect everyday PC for cruising the Internet, doing your daily computing, staying connected via instant messaging, and enjoying photos, music, videos and more.

Chic white or classy black accessories

Expanding your infotainment world, some models of the AspireRevo come with a host of ivory-white or classy all-black accessories, including a webcam, mini speakers, wired or wireless keyboard and mouse.

Mini powerhouse

The AspireRevo is small but powerful, fueled by today's latest mini processor and matched by an advanced NVIDIA® graphics chipset plus HDMI® connectivity for very real-looking imagery. An eSATA port, six USB ports and a card reader1 make transferring your photos and other files as fast and easy as ever.
